USS PHOBOS

SYNOPSIS

With the new treaty that came with the accords signed with the Klingons, it had been hoped that a new era of peaceful space exploration would be forged. However it became clear that there were elements within the Klingon empire that were not going to let this stand. Old hatreds between the federation and the Klingon Empire went too deep to be forgotten. Though the Big D-7 heavy cruisers were too large to be manufactured by many of the smaller houses within the empire. The bird of prey was however readily available for production. The larger house with resources within the empire began to build them at a frighteningly large rate. The Bird of prey became the most feared weapon to federation shipping in the known universe.

To counter this, Starfleet R&D came up a design meant to counter the new threat. Fast and maneuverable, these ships would have to be able to keep up with large groups for close protection of the fleets and convoys. The Perimeter Action ships were born.

With the success of the Arbiter class. It was determined the perimeter action class lacked the ability to carry support craft for Starfleet's primary goals, that of scientific exploration. A new class would be designed with this in mind. And thus the Phobos class was created.

Based on an older frigate the Loknar class, the Phobos had many design upgrades from the older ship. It incorporated a hangar bay at the stern of the saucer section. This removed much of the space allocated for an engineering section, but that was solved by moving the impulse engines further back and dividing the single engine into two separate engines with their own independent reactor cores. The ship was also given a lower deck torpedo bay allocated with three forward firing tubes and one independent aft tube. The ship is allocated with 9 phaser banks. 3 dual independent banks on the dorsal saucer section. 2 dual independent banks on the ventral saucer section. 2 single independent banks on the roll bar for the torpedo bay dorsal. And 2 independent banks facing aft on the stern. This limits the number of blind spots that a small fighter might utilize during space combat.

The ship's dual impulse amplification crystals allow for double the power during high speed maneuvers at sub light speeds as well as giving the ship the ability to supply power from 2 sources to vital systems throughout the ship.

Though considered a combat vessel, the ship can still, when the hostilities between the Klingon empire and the federation come to their obvious conclusion, the ship can still operate as a light science platform and courier vessel allowing the class to outlive its combat needs well into the future.

USS PHOBOS

CLASS PERFORMANCE

To date, no ship of the Phobos class has reported any major incidents or problems. The ships have performed well beyond what the designers had expected. No ship has been lost to any malfunctions or problems.

The Uss Balahovit Ncc-60601, Uss Kyarkibash Ncc-60609, Uss Lignitzhohe Ncc-60617, Uss Schobergruppe Ncc-60619 and Uss Lernarot Ncc-60656 of Perimeter Action Group 302 encountered an incursion by Klingon forces into their area of operation near Deep Space Star Station Ora. Initially the station detected a single Klingon D-7 running silent on the perimeter of their sensors. The ship failed to respond to hails and the station commander sent the Bellicose class Uss Chicunha Ncc-36225 to make contact with the Klingon ship. On arrival, the Chicunha hailed the vessel and attempted to make visual contact. The D-7 launched an unprovoked torpedo attack on the Chicunha. The Chicunha captain already at yellow alert, managed to withstand the initial barrage, and returned fire with phaser's. The captain of the Chicunha advised station Ora of the attack and was beginning to give chase to the other vessel when no less than four birds of prey decloaked and began firing on the Chicunha. The ship received minor damage to the forward shields and thermal damage to the outer hull aft. The Chicunha captain advised Ora of the situation and requested assistance from the stations Perimeter Action group. The ships of Perimeter Action Group 302 arrived shortly thereafter, Commodore Zudiwi already having decided to head to the Chicunha's position in case things became hostile and engaged the Klingons head on. The first of the birds of prey seemed to be caught by surprise as the Perimeter Action ships dropped out of warp and immediately began firing. Utilizing the effective firepower of the perimeter action ships, Commodore Zudiwi divided the weapons fire between her 5 ships. The Balahovit, Kyarkibash and Schobergruppe, engaged the D-7 with a torpedo barrage while the Lignitzhohe and Lernarot attacked with phasers. The combined fire power collapsed the D-7s shields and punched through to the ship's hull destroying the portside nacelle. With the D-7 out of action, and the Chicunha now turning to assist in the engagement, the remaining Birds of prey began to coordinate their attacks on the Federation vessels. 2 of the Birds of prey engaged the Kyarkibash as this was Commodore Zudiwi command ship. Utilizing the Perimeter Action maneuverability, Commodore Zudiwi managed to elude the 2 ships until the Chicunha could bring the ships weapons to bear and destroy one of the birds and heavily damage the other. The remaining 2 birds turned their attention to the Balahovit and Lernarot attempting to make strafing runs on the ships, but were beaten off with heavy phaser fire from the two ships combined. The remaining Birds Of prey went to warp. Commodore Zudiwi attempted to make contact with the D-7 who was still trying to limp away to broker a peaceful surrender. The captain of the D-7 initiated the ships destruction with no survivors. Upon further investigation, the Klingon ships were allied with Klingon House 'Kivec'. A former member of the Klingon High Counsel, 'Kivec' is a strong believer in the idea of taking what the empire needs without having to barter with weaker races. At this time, 'Kivec' has sworn an oath to fight the Federation and ally himself with any and all who feel the same way. Starfleet Intelligence believes that 'Kivec' may be trying to broker an alliance with four of the leading houses within the Klingon Empire nearest to Station Ora including 'Torval', 'Yigesh', 'Duras' and 'Kelvorn'. This matter is still under investigation.

The commander of Star Station Qiaomu became embroiled with a dispute between 2 warring planets not far from the Chunhuas Colony after several Federation flagged cargo vessels were stopped and harassed by military vessels from one of the planets. The cargo Vessel SS Topain was stopped and the ship's crew detained under the guise of possible supporters of the opposing planets government. A distress signal was received by the station commander and the stations Lanteglos Class Uss Freshford Ncc-131735 was dispatched to assist. On arrival, the planetary government advised Captain P'ilnefron of the Freshford that it was determined that the crew was in fact supplying the government of their enemy with weapons and intelligence concerning their military and people. Captain P'ilnefron managed to speak with the captain of the cargo vessel who thoroughly denied the allegations stating that they had never even been to the other planet within the adjoining system, and merely used the corridor between the two systems as a normal rout of interstellar travel. Captain P'ilnefron requested to see the ships logs for the Topain, but was advised that the ship was being scanned and searched for contraband concerning the alleged compliance with the other government. Sensor scans revealed that the ship had been taken to an orbital ship yard. At this time, ships from the system currently at war with the system the Freshford was dealing with arrived and began attacking. The Freshford, having been in orbit at the time began maneuvering to avoid getting the federation further involved in a separate conflict. Captain P'ilnef'ron having been on the planet was unable to return to his ship, and advised the crew to depart and call for assistance from the station. The Freshford managed to break orbit as the attacking vessels began launching nuclear weapons onto the planet. The second in command attempted to stop the attacks, but the Freshford came under fire themselves by no less than 25 hostile ships. Commodore Nikolai and Perimeter Action Group 275 were immediately dispatched to assist. On arrival the next day, they found that the attacking ships were still in the process of orbital bombardment of the planet. Commodore Nikolai made contact with Captain P'ilnef'ron who had managed to take shelter in a military bunker on the planet's surface who advised that the planets defenses were taking out large numbers of inbound weapons, but many were still getting through causing wide spread destruction. The Uss Welgersdorf Ncc-60675, Uss Barrio El Retazo Ncc-60644, Uss Ch'orat'an Ncc-60662, Uss Sarch'apet Ncc-60640 and Uss Leucadia Ncc-60603 took up defensive positions near the planet and attempted to open a dialog with the attacking ships. The commander of the invading forces advised that they had been sent to deal with the planet and the Federation as they has allied themselves with the planetary government and were now considered enemies of the later. Commodore Nikolai advised the commander that they were not there to assist in anything and that they had deployed in orbit as a result of the incident involving the SS Topain. Commodore Nikolai also sent them the information concerning the crew and ship and how they had been taken. Commodore Nikolai then advised that if the attacking ships did not cease their attacks and withdraw, due to Captain P'ilnef'ron being at risk on the planet's surface from the attacks, the Commodore Nikolai would have no choice but to take action to secure the safety of federation personnel. The commander of the attacking forces advised that the captain would be considered a casualty of war and advised that the commodore and his ships would be fired upon if they attempted to interfere. He also advised that if the federation was sincere in its claim that they were just here under a peaceful flag and that the commodore and his ships should depart without further hostilities. Commodore Nikolai attempted to explain further when communications were cut short and the leading element of the attacking ships moved forward with 25 out of the 68 attacking ships. The Ch'orat'an, Retazo and Welgersdorf took point on the defenses locking phaser's and torpedoes onto the advancing ships. The Freshford having stayed on station just out of range to monitor the situation moved in from behind one of the planets six moons and locked weapons onto the attacking ships command vessel. Commodore Nikolai again attempted to make contact with the lead attacking vessel but was ignored. As the first of the 25 ships came within range, they began firing with plasma weapons and older generation phaser's. The following vessels fired nuclear tipped torpedoes and began attempting to maneuver around to the stern of the perimeter action vessels. Commodore Nikolai gave the order to open fire and engaged the leading 6 attacking ships destroying 4 and damaging 2. The ships close in defenses destroyed the nuclear torpedoes while the Freshford fired torpedoes onto the enemy flag ship damaging the engines and weapons systems. The Sarch'apet received minor hull damage from 4 torpedo detonation close in and began maneuvering to avoid further attacks. The Freshford came within point blank range of the command vessel and fired a full barrage of photon torpedoes into the ships starboard side. The weapons penetrated deep within the ship and detonated. The command vessel was obliterated in the resulting conflagration. The rest of the attacking fleet seemed to take stock of this development and pulled back to a defensive position in proportion to the federation ships. Commodore Nikolai Again opened a channel to begin dialog with the remaining fleet commander who agreed to a cease fire. All attacking ships withdrew to their home system. Captain P'ilnef'ron was returned to his ship without further incident and only minor injuries. All ships were returned to duty with in a few days of the incident. Starfleet Diplomatic affairs is now in the process of brokering a permanent cease fire between the planets after having managed to convince both parties of their innocence in the incident.

The background of the page features a large, stylized logo of the Star Trek Federation of Planets. The logo is circular with a blue outer ring containing the text "STARFLEET COMMAND" at the top and "FEDERATION OF PLANETS" at the bottom. Inside this ring is a yellow and blue shield with a white star in the center. The shield is set against a silver, metallic-looking background with a jagged, star-like border.

Paramount Pictures and CBS television: For bringing me the inspiration for the work in the first place.

<https://www.deviantart.com/captshade>: For the First picture I started with of the Phobos.

Gene Roddenberry (The Great Bird of the Galaxy): For having the idea of a future where all people could live together for a common goal. That of seeing what's out there.

All the Other Fans: Because we make this possible and keep the faith going to hope for that better future someday.
