NEIL PEART FEATURED AT THE BUDDY RICH MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP CONCERT

Neil Peart was one of five drummers featured at a sold out concert at The Ritz Theater in New York City on April 8, 1991. Neil performed with the 16 piece Buddy Rich big band.

The event was videotaped by DCI Music Video and has just been released on two 65 minute tapes. Neil performs on both tapes.

The concert was produced by Buddy's daughter, Cathy Rich, and is an annual event in which a young drummer is awarded a full scholarship to a music school of his choice. This year's winner is Larry Wright, a young drummer who began playing a bucket on the streets of New York City.

Neil performed along with Steve Smith - seven year veteran drummer with Journey, Omar Hakim - drummer with Sting and Weather Report, Marvin "Smitty" Smith - drummer from New York City that brought the house down and Wil Calhoun - drummer with Living Colour.

The video by DCI is more than just a tape of the show. It contains backstage shots, pieces of the rehearsal for the show and a lot of interviews. There are some great interview segments with Neil.

For more information contact:

DCI Music Video
