Dear Rush fan,

Due to the lack of the necessary feedback from members of the fan club, Rushology has been terminated temporarily. I will start again. And with your ideas and support, it will be better. I'm open for suggestions.

You will be contacted when it returns in the near future.

Thank you,

Derek J. Barker

Rush is mixing in Paris
w/ a title decided for the album. Expect a Fall release.

Sorry about this.
Hope your book comes out soon

Dear Rush fan,

Last March, I had an idea: I wanted to inform people about those three stooges that still remain an enigma to some people. So I decided that I would like to start a fan club. Each newsletter will be dedicated to one of their albums in chronological order. To enable you to participate in this newsletter, you are invited to evaluate each album. Simple, huh?

For each newsletter, my main job will be to blend together everyone's responses. And whenever I encounter an interesting statement, I will quote you.

Not only will there be an essay in each newsletter, but articles, contests, editorials, itineraries, pen pal lists and polls.

The membership requirement for each year will be seven (7) U. S. dollars. Four newsletters will be published each year. Please write out checks or money orders to Derek Barker. Fill out the questionnaire and enclose it with your check or money order.

Please write your first essay on "The Critical Period" (1968-1973). You may express yourself in any way desired concerning this topic and make sure you send it by the first deadline:

February 14, 1986

If you are not satisfied with the first newsletter, please send it back and express your reasons for a refund.

For an answer to your inquiries, please send a Self-Addressed Stamped Envelope. No reply can be sent without it.

 I will refund your seven dollars if you recruit six (6) fans who will meet the membership requirement.
