disappears from sight!"

What with unkind jibes about the size of his nose 'n' all (see elsewhere in this issue), poor ol' Geddy really had a bit of a tough time of it throughout the Shout It Out Loud sweepstakes.

But, as our pic here shows, he's pretty adept at maintaining his grace under pressure . . .

WE ASKED YOU . . . to vote for the weediest man in rock.

And if there was ever a one horse race, then this was it! Our mailbag contained a sprinkling of names like Ronnie Dio, Cronos of Venom, Klaus Meine of the Scorpions, Francis Rossi of Quo and even King Diamond of Mercyful Fate (!) and Fish of Marillion (!! ) but the winner by a mile was, of course, Geddy Lee of Rush.

"He's in a class of his own!" proclaimed Ken and Nick of Egham, Surrey, while Arthur Broomfield of Macclesfield Cheshire offered the age-old wisecrack: "When Geddy Lee turns sideways onstage he
