Dear Young Ohio.

My parents are always griping about costs. Well, I have a gripe, too. How about rock concert prices?

Not so long ago you could get a ticket for maybe $4 or $5. Now we have to pay $7 for a David Bowie show and $7 for the World Series of Rock and $8 at the gate.

O.K., for the World Series you get a whole bunch of stars so they average out. But I'm complaining because this is a trend and I think it's going to get worse.

Where are teen-agers supposed to get all that bread?

Thanks for your Z.Z. Top-Rush-Locomotiv GT review. I'm so glad that a newspaper gets to these shows. But you were off base. Rush was really the top at that show. Just wait and see how they grow in popularity!
